

HOW TO FILE AN EMPLOYMENT OR SERVICE DELIVERY DISCRIMINATION COMPLAINT

If you feel that you have been treated differently because of your age, race, religion, color, sex, national origin or ancestry, disability or association with a person with a disability, arrest or conviction record, sexual orientation, marital status or pregnancy, political belief or affiliation, a military participation, or use or non use of lawful products off the employers or service providers premises during working hours, you may file a complaint. If you were wrongfully denied services, or if the treatment you received was separate or different from others, or if the program was not accessible to you, it may be discrimination.

IMPORTANT: If your application for service was not taken or your were told you were not eligible for a particular program BUT you feel you are eligible, ask the provider for a pamphlet which explains how to request a local agency appeal process or State administrative hearing review. Your right to this review or hearing does not need to be connected to a discrimination complaint.

You may file an informal discrimination complaint with your employer or service provider, or you may file a formal discrimination complaint with the county agency. No one may threaten or harass you for making a complaint. No one may threaten or harass your witnesses because they are willing to say that they saw, heard or experienced.

All formal complaints must be filed within 180 days of the event or treatment you feel was discrimination. However, you should file the complaint as soon as possible after the action took place. If you file an informal complaint and you are not satisfied with the resolution, you can still file a formal complaint as long as you do it within filing time frame. Do not wait until after the filing deadline to get an answer to the informal complaint if you plan to make a formal complaint.

To file an informal discrimination complaint with your provider or employer, request a discrimination complaint form by calling the Equal Opportunity Coordinator at ___-___-___ or TDD ___-___-___. Send the complete form back to your provider's Equal Opportunity Coordinator. His or her name should be on this form.

If you wish to file a formal discrimination complaint, you may send the completed complaint form directly to the appropriate county agency listed below. Include a letter stating that you are making a formal complaint to their agency as the funding source. Staff of the county will provide the results to you within 90 days.

File Formal Discrimination complaints about these services with the agency listed below.
